at la Arena Coliseo in Mexico City, Distrito Federal, Mexico

- 1) Astro de Oro, Angel Azteca, and Anibal defeated Pirata Morgan, el Angel Blanco junior, and Masakre 2-0 via DQ when Masakre unmasked Anibal during the second fall.
- 2) los Thudercats: Leono, Tigro, and Pantro defeated los Arqueros del Espacio: Danny Boy, Lasser, and Robin Hood 2-1 via pinfall. This gave los Thundercats the Mexican National Trios Championship.
- 3) el Dandy, el Satanico, and el Rayo de Jalisco junior defeated Cien Caras, Mascara Ano Dos Mil, and M S 1 2-1 via DQ. Too much mask ripping here for me but Dandy was really over again (So was Rayo).
- 4) In a hair vs. hair match, Scorpio lost his hair to Ringo Mendoza via pinfall in the third fall. No surprises here, but this is the third straight week Scorpio has been in the main event & each time I'm more impressed by presence.
- 5) Videos: 1) Lo Isilito: Lucha Callejera (literally, The Unusual: Wrestling Wandering the Streets) A clip of a ring set up in a parking lot in Mexico City with kids (16-18) wrestling. Fabulous clips. 2) Un Leyenda: Gran Marsalla (Review of Gran Marsalla who retired after 33 years as a luchador.) 3) M S I : A video on Pablo Fuentes, M S I, who, as a heel, is filmed swinging kiddies on a swingset!

9/2/90

At la Arena Neza in Naucalpan, Mexico

- 1) el Hijo del Santo defeated Perro Aguayo two falls to one in the main event. Why Santo was in this match instead of Fishman as had been advertised, I don't know. Also, why a welterweight is matched with a lightheavyweight I don't know. Aguayo won the first fall. Santo won the second fall with the camel clutch submission, and Santo won the third fall with an over the top rope cross body block resulting in Aguayo's being counted out of the ring. After the match, Aguayo challenged Santo to a hair vs. mask match, but since no such match was announced by Carlos Maynes, I think it was just a spur-of-the moment sort of thing and wouldn't look for such a match anytime soon. Santo bled quite a bit and his mask was pretty well ripped up too.
- 2) Villano V, el Texano, and Dos Caras defeated Fishman, Doctor Wagner junior, and Rambo, which featured lots of mask ripping between Dr. Wagner and Villano V.
- 3) Villano I, Solar I, and Fantasma defeated Scorpio junior, Blue Panther, and Negro Casas via disqualification in the final fall, where Solar I and Scorpio junior were both said to have looked especially good (no wonder look who they were working with).
- 4) Silver King, Blackman I, and Blackman II defeated los Temerarios: Shu, el Guerrero, Jose Luis Feliciano, and Black Terry.
- 5) Orquidea, Superbrazo, and Ricky Boy defeated Corsario Negro, la Mascara, and Kennick.

At la Arena Pista Revolucion (9/2/90)

No report was available because reporters Miguel Arturo Rosas and Eduardo Rosas were denied admittance to the arena by the promoter. (That's what it said) The fans who were interviewed leaving the building reported that Fuerza Guerrera had successfully defended his NWA World Welterweight title by defeating Octagon in the main event of the card.

9-7-90

At la Arena Mexico

1. Justiciero, Octagon, and Misterioso defeated Jaque Mate, Fuerza Guerrera, and el Hijo del Gladiador when Octagon mad Fuerza Guerrera submit to the camel clutch in the third fall. (No rating of this match, only highlights shown)
2. "la Nueva Ola Blanca" (el Gran Markus junior, el Angel Blanco junior, and el Medico Asesino junior) debuted as a trio successfully by defeating Apolo Vince, Super Astro, and Apolo Dantes when 250 pound el Gran Markus junior pinned 187 pound Super Astro in the third fall. 3/4
3. Lizmark, Atlantis, and Mascara Sagrada defeated los Mosqueteros del Diablo: los Brazos (Brazo de Oro, Brazo de Plata, and el Brazo) when Atlantis made Brazo de Oro submit to the camel clutch in the third fall. Faces looked great.
4. Perro Aguayo and 2/3 of los Hermanos Dinamita (Cien Caras and Mascara Ano Dos Mil) went to a double disqualification with el Hijo del Santo, Salomon Grundy, and el Rayo de Jalisco junior when el Rayo de Jalisco junior completely ripped Cien Caras's mask off in the third fall at the same time Aguayo ripped el Hijo del Santo's mask completely off (this last bit was heavily edited so all you could see was Santo's black hair.) Rating (because I do not care much for mask ripping) ***
5. M S 1 and Masakre (los Infernales) lost their hair to Ringo Mendoza and el Faraon in a hair vs. hair match where both members of the losing team get their heads shaven. I can't say enough about this third fall, but it was a classic; the second best third fall I've seen on Galavision (only surpassed by el Satanico vs. Jerry Estrada 3/23/90. Considering the talent level of the four workers (awful to fair at best) it was amazing things went that well. There were so many twists and turns starting with a false finish to the second fall that it would take pages to describe it all. Suffice it to say that Mendoza pinned M S 1 with a sunset flip to save his caballero. You have got to see this third fall! Whole match:  Third fall: *1/2

Note: They have been having a "write to your favorite wrestler" campaign for several weeks. This week they announced that the wrestler getting more than twice the response of anyone else (to the obvious great surprise of the announcers and I'll bet to everyone else too) was mid-level face el Rayo de Jalisco junior! Second was Octagon who is even a lower level face!

9/9/90

At el Toreo de Cuatro Caminos in Naucalpan, Mexico, Mexico
Main Event: Villano I, Villano V, and el Texano defeated Doctor Wagner junior (who bled heavily even though he did not have his mask ripped), el Signo, and el Texano two falls to one. After the match, Villano V took Doctor Wagner junior's UWA world junior heavyweight belt and destroyed it, and then challenged the "el Galeno del Mal (The Doctor of Sickness)" to a title match.

Semifinal: Dos Caras, Villano III, and Villano IV drew in the third fall with los Asesinos: The Killer, Rambo, and Fishman.

Also, el Hijo de Diablo, Blue Panther, and Negro Casas defeated Fray Tormenta, Solar I, and Solar II (can you imagine Casas having to carry Tormenta?) in a good match.

Also, Silver King, el Hijo de Black Shadow, and Ruben Garcia defeated Black Terry, Jose Luis Feliciano, and Shu, el Guerrero.

Also, Halcon and Drago beat Zeus and Scorpio junior.

at la Arena Mexico (9-9-90)

Also, Fabuloso Blondie "el Loco Gringo" Ken Timbs, Herodes, and M S 1 defeated el Rayo de Jalisco junior, el Satanico, and Salomon Grundy.

Also, Lola Gonzalez and Maria del Angel defeated Xochitl Hamada and Neftaly.

In the Opener, Ovaciones reports that Erick "el Canelo" Casas and Comando Ruso fought el Tauro junior and Rafaga Azul but does not give a result.

- 6) el Rayo de Jalisco junior defeated Cien Caras two falls to one with a small package to win The stipulations were that this was a mask vs. mask match and that if el Rayo de Jalisco junior lost that he would unmask and retire!  Best these two can do. Caras is Carmelo Reyes Gonzalez.

At el Toreo de Cuatro Caminos in Naucalpan, Mexico, Mexico

- 1) Main Event: Kokina, el Brazo de Oro, and el Brazo d Plata defeated Dos Caras, Villano III, and Villano IV two falls to one. The finish of the third fall was a double splash Kokina on Villano III and el Brazo de Plata on Villano IV and a double pin. During the second-third fall break, the heels attacked the Villanos and ripped the masks, but the faces cut came back and el Brazo de Oro open. After the match the heels started pounding away on the faces and Canek ran in for the save and brawled to the back with Kokina to set up that feud.
- 2) Canek, Fishman, and Negro Casas defeated el Gran Hamada, el Texano, and Yoshihiro Asai in what was described as the best match of the night. (No kidding!) The finish of the third fall saw Fishman pinned el Texano clean.
- 3) el Brazo, Rambo, and el Signo defeated el Villano I, Kato Kung Lee, and Silver King two falls to one.
- 4) Falcon, Negro Navarro, and Black Power defeated Merlin, Halcon 78, and Valente Fernandez two falls to one.

A la Arena Mexico in Cuidad de Mexico, Distrito Federal, Mexico (9/23/90) last card before arena shut down for a month

- 1) Main Event: "el Loco Gringo" Fabuloso Blondie (Ken Timbs), Konan el Barbaro, and Cien Caras defeated el Rayo de Jalisco junior, Salomon Grondy, and Sangre Chicana two falls to one. In the third fall, Cien Caras' normal tag team partners, Mascara Ano Dos Mil and Universo Dos Mil

(los Hermanos Dinamita), came out and together they tore el Rayo de Jalisco junior's mask to pieces. Also, Fabuloso Blondie and Salomon Grondy got into it and challenged each other to a hair vs. hair match, which was signed for this week at la Arena Mexico, either on 9/28/90 or 9/30/90. Grondy bled a lot too.

NWA at Arena Coliseo

- 1) el Vulcano and Tony Arce defeated el Pantera and el Felino.
- 2) Fuerza Guerrera, Jaque Mate, and Pierroth junior defeated Octagon, Cachorro Mendoza, and el Volador.
- 3) el Gran Shieck, su esclavo Abdul, and Pirata Morgan defeated Mogur, Super Astro, and Eddy Guerrero.
- 4) The Semifinal: el Satanico, el Dandy, and Emilio CHARles junior defeated Atlantis, Javier "la Monarca" Cruz, and Kung Fu (Reymundo Acosta) when Kung Fu (Reymundo Acosta) turned on Atlantis and Satanico on Dandy.
- 5) The Main Event: los Hermanos Dinamita: Cien Caras, Mascara Ano Dos Mil, and Universo Dos Mil, defeated Konan el Barbaro, el Rayo de Jalisco junior, and Sangre Chicana.

Held Friday 10/5/90 at la Arena Coliseo in Mexico City

- 1) The Main Event: los Hermanos Dinamita (Cien Caras, Mascara Ano Dos Mil, and Universo Dos Mil) again defeated for the third time in four weeks a team captained by el Rayo de Jalisco junior (teammates were Sangre Chicana and Lizmark.) Much better than I thought it would be, but not a wrestling match, but a pure three-fall brawl. As good a Lucha Libre brawl as you'll ever see, but their brawls are still not up to the level of those in Japan or the best American brawls. ***
- 2) The Semifinal: el Satanico, Kung Fu (Reymundo Acosta), and Emilio CHARles junior defeated Octagon, Atlantis, and el Dandy two falls to one in the best match of the show. The heat level for this match compared to the first three was enormous, especially Satanico vs. Dandy, who was stretchered. Really, the timing of these guys was fabulous, and I have to complement el Satanico, who I generally don't care for at all; he's not much of a wrestler but he makes a great rudo for their system. 1/2
- 3) Third from the top: Mando Guerrero, Anibal, and el Faraon defeated el Gran Markus junior, Pierroth junior, and Pirata Morgan. Old-timers' match. Only face win of the show. I had a phone call during the second fall and missed most of the match, so no rating offered yet.
- 4) Opener for TV: Javier "el Gusano" LLanes, Jaque Mate, and el Hijo del Gladiador defeated el Volador, Super Muneco, and el Misterioso two falls to one. The heel victory was their reward for three straight falls of selling for the young faces. I was right, all on-the-job training for the young technicos. Moves were great but it didn't add up to a match at all. **

- 5) Arena opener, highlights on TV: el Supremo and Bestia Salvaje defeated los Hermanos Dantes (Apolo Dantes and Cesar Dantes two falls to one. Highlights looked fair but no heat at all. No rating.

Sunday October 7, 1990

The UWA at el Toreo de Cuatro Caminos

- 1) The Main Event: In a triangular to determine the challenger for Big Van Vader's UWA World Heavyweight Title on Kokina, Dos Caras, and Canek wrestled as follows:
 - I) Dos Caras defeated Kokina two falls to one, winning the first and third falls. The third fall was won by DQ when Kokina bounced off the rope to give a big splash to Dos Caras, Dos Caras moved, and Kokina ended up splashing the referee. (See picture)
 - II) Canek defeated Kokina two falls to none, with a quick three count (by the same referee) signalling the end of the second fall and the match.
 - III) Canek and Dos Caras wrestled to a draw in the final match. This makes sense, I think, in this context: This match was 10/7; the main event is 10/21; but having a draw, they will have a rematch between Canek and Dos Caras 10/14 to further build the program, short-term as it is. Dos Caras small packaged (I believe) Canek for the first fall off a suplex; Canek won the second fall (it doesn't say how) after ripping Dos Caras's mask to shreds (see picture.)
The third fall went to a DCOR (also see picture).
- 2) The Semifinal: Doctor Wagner junior, Fishman, and The Killer defeated Villano III, Enrique Vera, and el Gran Hamada; afterwards Fishman made two challenges, one for Hamada's UWA lightheavyweight title and one for Villano III's WWF lightheavyweight title.
- 3) Third From The Top: "The Devil Musketeers" los Brazos (el Brazo, el Brazo de Oro, and el Brazo de Plata) defeated el Villano I, el Villano IV, and Tamba. The big news here is that Villano I was brutalized, mask ripped, bled something fierce and suffered a "concussion" all during the first fall at the hands of el Brazo. (See picture)
- 4) Opener: Black Power, el Signo and Kahos defeated el Fantasma, Solar I, and Halcon 78.

This card was said to be over three hours long for six matches and seventeen (I presume it was seventeen) falls That's over ten minutes a fall, whereas most NWA or WWF house shows now have less than two hours start to finish...

10/12/90 at la Arena Mexico

- 1) Main: Lizmark, Ringo Mendoza, and Konan el Barbaro defeated los Hermanos Dinamita (Cien Caras, Mascara Ano Dos Mil, and Universo Dos Mil) two falls to one via disqualification in the third fall. *3/4 Time for a new match on top.

4. Second Match: Jose Luis Feliciano and Shu, el Guerrero (two-thirds of los Temerarios) defeated Marlin and Tamba the flying elephant two falls to one.

5. Opener: Ricky Boy and el Sismo vs. Blackman II and la Mascara, no result given.

The UWA, Sunday, November 25, 1990, 4:00 pm PST, at el Toreo de Cuatro Caminos, Naucalpan, Estado de Mexico, Mexico

- 1) The Main Event: The Samoan Swat Team (Samu and Fatu) teamed with Kokina to defeat Dos Caras, Canek, and el Villano III (who bled) when Canek was disqualified for punching Kokina after the referee's warning (remeber, technicians in Mexico aren't supposed to punch) in the third fall. Then again, Canek is a rudo in Mexico almost always, but not in this match I guess. After the match, Dos Caras shoved Canek, saying why did you keep punching and cost us the match and ignoring the referee's warning etc which sets up their match this Sunday, December 2, 1990, to determine the official challenger for Big Van Vader's UWA World Heavyweight Championship, which will be defended on Sunday, December 9, 1990 at el Toreo.
- 2) The Semifinal: In a non-title match, los Villanos I, IV, and V defeated los Brazos.
- 3) Third: The Killer, Doctor Wagner junior, and Fishman defeated The Kiss, el Mano Negra, and el Solar I.
- 4) Second: Rambo, Black Power, and el Signo defeated Silver King, el Texano, and Marlin.

The NWA, Sunday, November 25, 1990, 4:00 pm PST, at la Arena Mexico, Mexico City, Distrito Federal, Mexico

- 1) The Main Event: Lizmark and Atlantis defeated The Animals in a double mask versus mask match. Picture of the Animals enclosed. Dave, the joke is on you. Animal II looks like Eric Burdon! Finish was Lizmark and Animal II COR & Atlantis pinned Animal I (who bled) in the 3rd fall.
- 2) Semifinal: Handicap match: el Gigante Kimala defeated Mascara Sagrada who reinjured his knee and was stretchered (no idea if real or work) and Sangre Chicana 2 falls to 1.
- 3) Third: Konan el Barbaro, el Dandy, and Ringo Mendoza beat el Satanico, M S 1, and Fabuloso Blondy two falls to zero.
- 4) Second: las Tortugas Ninja won two straight falls from la Trio Fantasia (Muneco, Raton, Pinochio) and Coliseo 2000.
- 5) Opener: Midgets: el Piratita Morgan, el Espectrito, and Jerrito Estrada defeated Octagoncito, Aguila Solitaria, and Mascarita Sagrada.

Tuesday, November 27, 1990, la Arena Isabel, Leon, Guanajuato
el Satanico defeated Lizmark to win the NWA World Light

Heavyweight Championship in the old double pin finish in the third fall.

Wednesday, November 28, 1990 at la Arena Coliseo de Acapulco in Acapulco, Guerrero, Mexico:

- 1) Atlantis drew with el Satanico in the third fall in a match for the NWA World middleweight title. I thought el Satanico was a light heavyweight.
- 2) Octagon drew with Fuerza Guerrera in the third fall in a match only for the NWA World Welterweight title. I thought Octagon was a middleweight. Did you know that Octagon is one of Guerrera's star students from Guerrera's training school? I don't think they had any idea that Octagon would improve at this rate or that he would catch fire with the fans this well; he's become in a very short time (debuted 6/89) as good a worker as Atlantis (just not so flashy) and is catching up on the heat side as well.
- 3) Sangre Chicana, el Dandy, and el nuevo Huracan Ramirez junior defeated Emilio CHARLES junior, The Animal I, and The Animal II two falls to one via disqualification in the third fall.

Thursday, November 29, 1990, el Cortijo bullring, Mexico City

- 1) el Brazo de Oro pinned el Signo in the third fall to win a hair vs. hair match. el Brazo de Oro bled buckets. Rated good.
- 2) Super Astro, Mando Guerrero, and el Villano IV defeated Masakre, M S 1, and el Gran Markus junior two falls to one. Rated very good.
- 3) Robin Hood, Kato Kung Lee I, and Kato Kung Lee II defeated Black Power, el Bello Greco, and Sergio el Hermoso two falls to one.
- 4) el Espectro de Ultratumba and el Principe Maya defeated los Rayos Tapatios I and II two falls to one. Rated very good.
- 5) Bat Blue defeated Angel Negro.

Friday, November 30, 1990 at la Arena Mexico in Mexico City.

- 1) Main: Hair versus hair: Fabuloso Blondy lost his hair to Ringo Mendoza after a small package in the third fall. I still think the EMLL has had too many of these in Mexico City lately, even if they do employ a lot of guys.
- 2) Semifinal: el Dandy, Atlantis, and el Rayo de Jalisco junior lost in the third fall to el Gigante Kimala, el Satanico, and Herodes.
- 3) Third: Anibal (celebrating his 50th birthday), Super Astro, and Sangre Chicana upset the UWA World Six-Man Heavyweight Champions, los Brazos, when Anibal pinned el Brazo de Oro in the third fall. This is comparable to the WWF World Tag Team Champions Hart Foundation showing up on NWA TV one week billed as WWF Champions and losing cleanly to Brad Armstrong and Tim Horner via pinfall. A fabulous match with money thrown in the ring afterwards!
- 4) Second: Fuerza Guerrera, Jaque Mate, and Pierroth junior defeated el nuevo Huracan Ramirez junior, Octagon, and Kato Kung Lee I two falls to one when Octagon was pinned by Fuerza Guerrera in the third fall.

- 5) Opener: el Justiciero and el Misterioso vs. los Supremos I and II: no result given
